

Marist Spirituality

Maybe you have heard it asked, "Who is this Christ you talk so much about? Who is this person you say we are to imitate?" In today's world there are many people who simply do not know Jesus. To them, he is hidden and unknown, a stranger who has no place or meaning in their lives.

In last weekend's bulletin we read that our calling is to make Christ known. Like Mary, we are called to bring Christ into the world and make him visible through our lives. In other words, as believers and followers of Christ, we are meant to give flesh to the Word and to make Jesus come alive. You don't have to be a St. Francis of Assisi or a Mother Theresa of Calcutta to do that. All we need to do is be to believers and followers of the Lord who we so ardently seek to imitate, even if we do sometimes "miss the mark."

Marist Craig Larkin gives us some idea of what it means to make Jesus come alive for others when he writes, "It would be something new if in a world where so many people are searching to overcome the sense of alienation and separation, of emptiness and meaninglessness, there were a group of people who, because of Mary the first disciple of Jesus, took a stand for mercy, compassion, and communion of mind and heart. Then indeed the Word (Jesus) would become flesh, and small steps would be taken to make the world a place where people could experience the presence of the Spirit of Jesus."

Let's take that stand for mercy, compassion, and communion of mind and heart that Larkin writes about. Let's bring the Spirit of Jesus to those who ask, "Who is this Christ you talk so much about?" Brother Roy

Our Sympathies

Our sympathies are extended to four parishioners who lost a loved one recently: Amelia Derico lost her brother, Dominic Riccottilli, Joanne Huffman lost her brother in law, Bernard Huffman, John Walsh, lost his mother in law, Ruth Lohr, and Bill Hamilton lost his sister, Barbara Diehl. May these souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

Summertime

We pray that all of our parishioners have a happy and healthy summer. Parents, please continue to bring your children to mass during the summer. Oftentimes, we don't see families at mass until School of Religion begins in the fall. Also, please remember to make your weekly contributions when you return from vacation. Our parish bills do not stop during the summer, so we need everyone's help with this.

Welcome Father Ron

We welcome Father Ron Nikodem, S.M. back to Holy Rosary for a few weeks. He will be here while Fr. Joe is on vacation. Welcome back, Father Ron!

Dear Parishioners, Your support of the Washington District Backpack Program has been terrific! The program has been a complete success because of your financial support, peanut butter and fruit donations, and actual labor. Thank you! The program starts its 8th year in August 2019!!! You, the Holy Rosary Parishioners have been very faithful to your commitment to support your program! With the planned demolition of St. Joseph's house, the program was granted permission and a budget to build a new location in the 'old Rectory' garage for storage of food stuffs and a staging area to pack the packs. The space was completed before the first of May so the program actually completed the school year in the garage — a very good space! If you like to see the space let us know (Amy and Dusty Williams/ Doris Sandreth). Please continue your financial support. And please prayer for the WDES students that they have a safe and healthy summer. God bless, Amy
