

ONLY TWO WEEKS TO GO!
ARE YOU READY FOR OUR FALL BAZAAR?

Just a few short weeks and our Holy Rosary Fall Bazaar will be in full swing. On October 19, we welcome family, friends, and community members to Marist Hall to experience exceptional arts and crafts (not to mention mouth-watering cakes, candies, breads and pies) created by the multi-talented Holy Rosary Parishioners.

Don't forget about our raffles.

The kitchen is open: grab a snack or a meal. Take outs are available.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME! PLEASE COME AND BRING A FRIEND!

Bring your crafts to Marist Hall on Thursday, October 17 or Friday, October 18 from 8 am-5 pm. We will price items when we receive them.

Bring your baked goods and crafts to Marist Hall on Friday, October 18 from 8 am-5 pm. We will price them that day.

We need parishioners to help us on Saturday, October 19. Can you volunteer some time? Sign up in Marist Hall.

All items left from the sale on Saturday will be available after the masses on October 19 and 20. If you would like to take unsold items home, please do it on Sunday.

Raffle Tickets for the hand painted slate by Shirley Lundell will be available after mass this weekend. Can you sell some tickets to your family or friends? We also have tickets available for a beautiful hand knitted afghan by Sarah Ziems and a children's quilt, made by a friend. Check out the raffle table.

We also have three beautiful raffle baskets which will be available on the day of the Bazaar. Come that day and buy tickets for your chance to take home a beautiful gift.

Thank you for all you will do for our Parish Bazaar. We have all worked hard to make this event the best ever! Please share the dates and times with everyone you know!
