28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, "At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions" (Mark 10:22). The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, "mine." At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, "Lord, all I have is yours." And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Would You Like to Help the Hurricane Victims?

Many people have asked how they can help victims of the recent hurricane. Bishop Mark has designated the weekend of October 26 and 27 for a special collection in all of our churches. Please see the bulletin insert for more information on how to give.

World Mission Sunday - Second Collection for October

Always celebrated on the second to last Sunday of October, this year it will be marked on October 20th. World Mission Sunday is a special day that unites Catholics worldwide in prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission efforts.

This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is rooted in the Gospel of Matthew: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet," reflecting the inclusive and urgent call to bring God's love to everyone. Join us in this universal mission to spread the Gospel and invite all to experience the joy of Christ's message!

Thank you!

Our first ever homecoming, celebrated on the Feast of the Holy Rosary, was a huge success! Thanks to all who worked to make this celebration one to remember. The liturgy was beautiful, and we thank Fr. Ron for celebrating with us. Our School of Religion children delighted us all, and the meal and celebration in our hall was exceptional. Once again, our Holy Rosary family came together with love and support of each other. Thank you to all!

Adventure Club

Who wants to do the Bridge Walk? We are planning a trip for Saturday, November 2, but we need to know how many people would be interested in going. We also plan to spend some time hiking in the New River Gorge National Park that day, and stop for dinner before heading back. Please comment or message Rachel Weber or Lindsay Zirkle if you'd like to join us! *You can also join us for the day, and NOT do the bridge walk. Just let us know!
